

Thanks to Indiana's no call list the telephone only rings when there are important people on it. It always was a distraction to have businesses call wanting to talk when you did not. Our phone system should not be spammed.